Extracts from minute File 16 of 15-16. Relating to permission ~~for~~ the asst Sanit Supdt Municipal Co to keep a cycle and draw his ~~H A~~ allowance of 10 Rs.

2. The draft is submitted for approval. But it is respectfully submitted that as a general order has been passed giving the Sanitary Inspectors in towns, the option of maintaining a pony or a bicycle, it seems fair that the case now under reference should be disposed of under that order.

3. The view of the numerous orders obtaining on the subject of horse and bicycle allowances, the question of systematising the matter by a uniform rule applicable to all Departments will, if approved, be taken up separately and opinions called for to arrive at a decision.

4 That order was passed in a Special Case. I think it is ridiculous that Rs per mensem should be given for upkeep of a bicycle. You don't pay for buying a horse but are now paying rent for upkeep but for buying a cycle.

5 The proposition of the Municipal Council in question may be sanctioned and a general reference may go to bring all others in a line and adopt a different policy.

the proposal to allow these officers employed in the Mofussil to draw Cycle allowance at 7-8 instead of Pony allowance of Rs 10/- was subsequently vetoed by Government in their No: 92537 L.B 227-14-2 & 22.5.15.

29/1/17. The object of giving a conveyance allowance is primarily to enable the officer to maintain a conveyance, suitable to his rank and position, and necessary to be maintained by him in the interests of public work. The conditions of sanction are explained in art 597. M. S. R. In British India a Scale of the maximum limits within which conveyance allowances may be sanctioned according to which is determined, based on the No: of miles or hours that that may be required by the high officials in furtherance of his work. No such definite scale is laid down in Allystore. However the allowances sanctioned are generally less or little than the limits fixed in British India.

The limit for a pony allowance in Br India is Rs 15/ or 20/.

When a conveyance allowance is attached to an appointment, it is very necessary to see that the officer claiming the said allowance does actually maintain a suitable conveyance for the purpose of his work, and it is therefore prescribed that he should furnish a certificate of his having maintained the same.

The allowances in Allystore are apparently sanctioned on the understanding that the same are required for the upkeep of a horse or pony, and as admittedly the maintenance of a bicycle does not cost as much as that of the former, the full allowance sanctioned is not necessary. And on this principle conveyance allowances of recently 50 & 25/- have been sanctioned in certain cases
